

ENTRY-LEVEL DOCTOR OF OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY PROGRAM OPEN HOUSE

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

Prospective students who are interested in pursuing an entry-level clinical doctorate in occupational therapy, as well as parents, advisors, and allied health peers.

WHY ATTEND ?

- Learn about our 106-credit curriculum that integrates classroom learning with hands-on experiences
- Explore Fieldwork and Capstone Opportunities
- Hear from faculty and current students
- Understand admissions requirements

WHAT WILL YOU GAIN?

A clear sense of the academic journey — from foundational courses through advanced clinical rotations

Confidence in whether this is the right fit for your career aspirations in occupational therapy

11/15/25
12PM
Saturday

Decker College of Health Sciences
Room HSB 102

48 Corliss Ave, Johnson City, New York,
BingOT@binghamton.edu

Register Today!

