

MEDIEVAL ITALIAN NIGHT

5:30 - 8 P.M. | FRIDAY, DECEMBER 2, 2022

UNIVERSITY DOWNTOWN CENTER
(67 WASHINGTON ST. BINGHAMTON)

Please join us for a special evening celebrating Italian and Medieval Studies at Binghamton University on First Friday, Dec. 2, at the University Downtown Center.

The evening will feature medieval- and Italian-focused presentations by Binghamton University students and faculty, as well as an Italian open mic, and will culminate in a performance by the Italian music trio Eramo-Saletti-Tadayon, who perform their world-renowned songs on traditional Mediterranean instruments and in a variety of languages.

THIS EVENT IS FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC!

Jointly sponsored by CEMERS and the Romance Languages Learning Community at Binghamton University.
